The Glass Castle by Jeannette Walls

This nonfiction tell-all memoir is written by MSNBC columnist, Jeannette Walls. She describes the harsh and startling conditions which she and her family endured in the 60's and 70's. Her alcoholic father spent away what little money the family had, forcing them to live with in-laws and sometimes on the streets. Her mother was an artist who was out of touch and preferred to paint rather than fill the role of parent. Walls describes situations in her dysfunctional family that would startle most of us. She and her three siblings learned early on how to fend for themselves, and they have scars to show for it.
